

LOS ANGELES NEIGHBORHOOD INITIATIVE SECOND ANNUAL COMMUNITY FORUM

AUGUST 20, 2004

USC DAVIDSON CONFERENCE CENTER

LANI's Second Annual Community Forum, a practical and exciting event, highlighted the organization's 10th Anniversary. Through training, resources and inspiration, this event fostered the further development of active and skilled community organizations and neighborhood councils working to revitalize their own local districts and build a better Los Angeles.

Steve Davies, Vice President, Project for Public Spaces, Joyce Perkins, LANI Executive Director and Mark Ridley-Thomas, Assemblymember 48th District.

Exhibit tables represented by City departments and other service organizations were available for attendees.

Tom Gilmore, Manager of Gilmore Associates, delivers an enthusiastic Keynote Address.

Attendees received valuable neighborhood revitalization resources in the Forum Handbook.

After a series of informative workshops, participants enjoy the Awards Luncheon.

WORKSHOPS

- ◆ Plenary Session
Successful Public Spaces: How to Turn a Place Around
- ◆ Cultural Tourism: Celebrating Diversity
- ◆ Designing Successful Community Improvement Projects: Streetscape and Urban Greening
- ◆ Fundraising for Community Organizations
- ◆ Keeping the Books: QuickBooks for Nonprofits
- ◆ Safeguarding Your Community: Crime Prevention Resources and Techniques