

THIRD ANNUAL COMMUNITY FORUM

May 21, 2005

USC DAVIDSON CONFERENCE CENTER

LANI's Third Annual Community Forum was an overwhelming success, providing training, resources and inspiration to community organizations and neighborhood councils working to revitalize local districts and build a better Los Angeles.

Ed Begley, Jr., actor and environmental community activist, delivered a humorous and engaging keynote address

Councilmember Ed Reyes and Ventura City Manager Rick Cole join Joyce Perkins, LANI Executive Director, at the Forum

Talented students from the Crenshaw High School Jazz Combo provided lively musical entertainment

Exhibit tables represented by City departments and service organizations were available for attendees

Participants received valuable information and resources in the Forum Handbook

WORKSHOPS

- ◆ Business Improvement Districts
- ◆ Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design (CPTED)
- ◆ Fundraising for Community Organizations
- ◆ Graffiti Prevention and Abatement
- ◆ Greening Your Neighborhood
- ◆ Neighborhood Improvement Projects
- ◆ QuickBooks and Accounting Basics
- ◆ Safeguarding Your Community